

MAIN

INDIGENOUS ENTERPRISE

A word from our CEO:

“Our national capabilities place us in a unique position to do more than just increase profits for our business. We have the opportunity to make a difference in our country and we choose to change the lives of the traditional custodians of our land.”

This initiative helped form Main IE the group’s Indigenous Enterprise. Together with Joanne Pellew, Noongar Business Woman, Main IE will create employment opportunities for Indigenous men and women around the Pacific. Through Main IE we will employ indigenous and source indigenous. We will deliver through Main IE all the services of our group entities to our clients.”

“Futures are not chosen, options are” – George Bancs

Main IE

Your Indigenous Integrated Services

Committed to the cause of increasing Indigenous employment opportunities in the Facilities Services sector, the Main Industries Group of Companies founder George Bancs, together with Noongar Business Entrepreneur Joanne Pellew, of Ochre Workforce Solutions, Ochre Training and iWork online recruitment platform, formed Main IE.

The Main IE venture has enabled the formation of two respected organisations, both leaders in their fields, focusing on their core objectives:

- The delivery of leading and reputable asset services
- The procurement and supply of an Indigenous Workforce

The Main Industries Group Companies, Main Asset, Main Infrastructure, Main Environment, Main Fire and Main Life, together with Ochre Workforce Solutions, Ochre Training and iWork have the abilities and capabilities through the existing infrastructure, experience and expertise to deliver a high standard of asset services nationally with an Indigenous procurement strategy at its core.

In light of the Federal Government initiative to increase Indigenous participation in all sectors of the economy, Main IE will facilitate the viable opportunity for organisations to meet their RAP plan targets.

DELIVERING QUALITY OUTCOMES

Main Industries Group Companies Showcase

Our team of highly qualified and experienced Project Managers and their teams have undertaken works at some of the country's most sensitive locations. Our project showcase illustrates the wide-ranging capabilities of our group.

The Main Industries Group Companies understands the importance of discretion and how to manage and execute works in highly complex environments, while minimising impact on our clients and their business operations.

Our staff possess AFP clearances, Working with Children Checks, Police Checks and Criminal Record Inquiries.

Department of Justice

The Main Industries Group Company, Main Asset, has undertaken extensive works with scope(s) encompassing strip out and fit out, make good & painting works undertaken in courthouses, correctional facilities and community correction offices in New South Wales.

Outcome: Multiple projects undertaken - meeting the high expectations of our stakeholders with minimal to no disruption of their daily operations.

UNSW

Ongoing, multi-million-dollar contract across all facets in one of the oldest tertiary institutions in Australia. As a resident contractor, Main Asset has completed approximately 3000 work orders per annum across the entire 230 building estate. Delivering to our client a service that is of the highest quality standards and in most instances completed both outside of business hours and to the expectations of all stakeholders involved.

Outcome: Main Asset has become the leading contractor at UNSW. The University has utilised the capabilities of Main Asset, Main Fire and Main Environment.

The Ochre Mission Statement

“Ochre works tirelessly to bridge the Indigenous employment gap, by connecting employers and job seekers with real and meaningful solutions. Ochre creates Indigenous employment opportunities by providing training and employment solutions to all members of the community. We exceed client expectations and create long term positive relationships with our employers, suppliers and Indigenous community.”

The level of engagement that the Indigenous community have with founder Joanne Pellew is evidence of the trust and belief in the impact that is being achieved. Joanne continues to challenge the status quo, by making a difference. Her commitment to the Indigenous peoples and strength in commercial skills, see to her being invited to roundtable discussions by serving Ministers for the collaborative inclusion and advice regarding Indigenous business and employment.

Ochre Workforce Solutions

Ochre Workforce Solutions with its established capabilities in the source, supply and more recently registered training initiatives, place the ending of Indigenous disparity and the promotion of Indigenous employment as a conductor between meaningful resolutions for both candidates and clients alike.

Tirelessly working to challenge the issues faced by the Indigenous community and the disproportionately low rates of inclusion in the employment sector, as a crucial factor in overcoming the socio-economic conditions of poverty, high disease and mortality rates and over incarceration.

Founder Joanne Pellew’s dedication, drive and loyalty to her people have resulted in the authentic and meaningful resolutions extended to both her network of clients and Indigenous job seekers alike.

Ochre Workforce Solutions has enjoyed much success highlighting the capabilities, determination and the powerful work ethic of the Indigenous workforce. Having surpassed a milestone of 1500 placements; a testimony to those ends.

Ochre Workforce Solutions extends beyond the placement of their people, focusing on the continual development and up-skilling to continually meet client needs and candidate development. It is with this vision that Ochre Workforce Solutions went on to establish the countries first privately-owned RTO operated by an Indigenous Female Entrepreneur in Western Australia, Joanne Pellew.

Ochre Workforce Solutions, together with the iWork jobsite has empowered companies and indigenous job seekers alike to affect genuine change within the Indigenous employment sector. Ochre Workforce Solutions merges an inherent understanding of the Indigenous community, with insight and expertise in the employment sector, to bring about lasting solutions to the Indigenous employment gap. Ochre is tirelessly working to reshape the future for Indigenous employment within the Australian employment framework.

Ochre's capabilities have been demonstrated with the placement of their candidates across a multitude of sectors and competency levels including:

- Mining and resources
- Construction
- Retail
- Administration
- Transport, logistics, warehousing
- Hospitality and catering
- Gardening and landscape

The Main IE vision of accessing Ochre Work Force Solutions candidates and with the ability of the Main Industries Group Companies will ensure this formidable connection becomes a leader in providing solutions for the ongoing operational service for your assets.

iWorkforce

Australia's Number 1 Indigenous Job Site

Today through the iWork Jobsite, another Ochre Workforce Solutions initiative and Australia's number one Indigenous job board with unparalleled reach into the Indigenous sector continues to be recorded.

With 135,000 unique active visitors to the site since January 2017. iWork proudly relays a record 300,000-visitor milestone for a recruitment posting. iWork is in the process of implementing unique technology for regional and remote access extending to those both Indigenous and otherwise, who do not have access to smart phones, data or computers access across the country.

Main IE will be able to communicate to a highly targeted and specific candidate to furnish the procurement requirements of our clients. Modelled on a successful formula that has been implemented to multinational organisations including: Chevron, Wilson Security, MSS Security, Monadelphous and Choice One amongst many others. The Western Australian Government is currently implementing policies for the utilisation of the iWork platform to both recruit and model future policies from data collected.
